

You're invited!
New Pond Farm Invitational Art Show
From Farm to Canvas
Preview Party

Friday May 31, 2013
6:00-8:00P.M.

Please join us for a gala evening at New Pond Farm and enjoy beautiful art, live music,
Banfi wines, and delicious hors d'oeuvres.
$25 per person with NPF membership.
RSVP online or 203-938-2117

Proceeds from the sale of artwork will benefit New Pond Farm Education Center.

Connecting people to the land that enriches and sustains us all.

New Pond Farm Education Center

101 Marchant Road, West Redding, CT 06896
www.newpondfarm.org • (203) 938-2117

You're invited to the
New Pond Farm Invitational Art Show
From Farm to Canvas

June 1-16, 2013
Mon-Sat 10-5, Sun 12-5

A unique show featuring paintings and sculptures by 50 of the region's finest artists inspired by the beauty of New Pond Farm.

Portfolios of agrarian and nature-themed artwork • Silent Auction • Raffles
Free art demonstrations and workshops • Paint and Picnic, community art event

Preview Party Friday May 31, 6-8 p.m.
Please join us for a gala evening of beautiful art,
live music, Banfi wines, and hors d'oeuvres.
$25 per person with NPF membership.
RSVP online or 203-938-2117

Proceeds from the sale of artwork will benefit New Pond Farm Education Center.

Connecting people to the land that enriches and sustains us all.

New Pond Farm Education Center

101 Marchant Road, West Redding, CT 06896
www.newpondfarm.org • (203) 938-2117

Plein Air Watercolor Workshop with watercolor and ceramic artist
Sally Aldrich

Sunday, June 2, 2013 1-3 p.m.

*People of all ages are invited to join in on the fun with Sally Aldrich.
Please Bring Your Own Materials
Please call 203-938-2117 to register.*

Sally Aldrich graduated from Connecticut College with a degree in Fine Arts. She was an art teacher and department chair in Pleasantville, NY, teaching ceramics, painting and drawing. She is a member of the Clay Art Center, where she creates pottery and sculpture. She teaches at the Ridgefield Continuing Education Program, the Boys and Girls Club, and privately in her home studio. She has served as the President of the Katonah Museum Artists Association and is on the Hammond Museum Exhibition Committee. Her own work is exhibited in galleries in New York and Connecticut.
www.sallyaldrichart.com

New Pond Farm
101 Marchant Road Redding, CT
www.newpondfarm.org 203-938-2117

PASTEL WORKSHOP FOR KIDS
with pastellist and art teacher
Becky Holden

Wednesday June 5, 2013 4-5 p.m.

*Young artists aged 6-12 are invited to join talented pastellist
Becky Holden for a creative afternoon with pastels.
Spaces are limited, preregistration is required.
Please call 203-938-2117.*

Becky graduated with a BA in Fine Art from Rutgers University, and holds a MS in Art Education from SCSU. She and her family have been living in Redding for 18 years. Becky teaches art at Redding Elementary School and John Read Middle School, and is a member of the Silvermine Art Center, the Aldrich Museum of Art, and the Connecticut Pastel Society. She shows her work at the Silvermine Arts Center, the Mark Twain Art Show, and the New Pond Farm Art Show. mbholden@optonline.net

New Pond Farm
101 Marchant Road Redding, CT
www.newpondfarm.org 203-938-2117

Join us for the President's Tea
& Floral Still Life Watercolor Demonstration with painter and instructor
Adele Moros

Wednesday June 12, 2013 2-4 p.m.

New Pond Farm Education Center's warm and inviting President, Sharon Coates, has the well-deserved reputation of being one of the premiere bakers in town. Join Sharon for an enjoyable afternoon of delectable treats and teas and then spend time with the talented and inspirational watercolorist Adele Moros as she paints a favorite farm scene.

Please call for reservations 203-938-2117

Adele is a multi-media painter and instructor with work in over 700 private collections. Slides of her $60,000 "Tiffany" Cow are shown during lectures on Tiffany at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, NY. In 2005, the Toy and Miniature Museum of Kentucky purchased four of her paintings for its permanent collection. Ms. Moros has taught painting for the past 25 years and is a Fellow with the International Guild of Miniature Artisans. She has won many awards, and her work is included in numerous private, corporate, and museum collections.

www.AdeleMoros.com adelemoros@yahoo.net

PAINTING DEMONSTRATION
with contemporary impressionist painter
Catherine M. Elliott

Saturday June 15, 2013 2-4 p.m.

Please join us for an enjoyable afternoon at New Pond Farm with contemporary impressionist painter, Catherine M. Elliott, elected member of the Lyme Art Association and Connecticut Plein Air Painters Society. Please dress comfortably for the outdoors.

Demonstration will be held indoors in the event of rain and there is no charge.

Catherine is a contemporary artist whose work is evocative of the American Impressionism style of painting. The artist captures a moment in time and place that invokes the viewer to "see" the sublime. Inspired by Van Gogh, Claude Monet, and the French Impressionism painters, Catherine's work explores atmospheric and lighting conditions. Catherine teaches an annual artist workshop in Ireland and resides in Connecticut. Catherine is currently represented by 12 galleries throughout New England and abroad and is the illustrator of the Simon and Schuster fable "Old Swell, Little Wave" by Jim

Ballard. www.catherinemelliott.com

New Pond Farm
101 Marchant Road Redding, CT
www.newpondfarm.org 203-938-2117